UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
Faculty of Economics

Inaugural Cambridge Macro & Development PhD Conference

Austin Robinson Building Sidgwick Avenue Cambridge CB3 9DD, United Kingdom

30 October 2026

Programme

Friday 30 October

8:50 am Registration & Welcome (Keynes Room)

9:00 am SESSION 1: MONETARY POLICY (Keynes Room)

Dead Firms Walking: Financial Distress, Zombies, and Monetary Policy Transmission
Lea Havemeister, University of Cambridge

Taming the Black Swans: Monetary Policy in the Presence of Tail Risks
Chris Hyland, University of Oxford

10:30 am Break

10:35 am SESSION 2: NETWORKS IN MACRO (Keynes Room)

Propagation over Production Networks with Endogenous Market Power
Daniel Prosi, European University Institute

More than Money: The role of Capital in Task Allocation and Specialization within the Firm
Razan Amine, University of Cambridge

12:05 pm Lunch

1:00 pm SESSION 3: GEOECONOMICS AND FIRM CREDIT (Meade Room)

Energy Shocks, Employment Response, and Heterogeneous Credit Access
Costanza Tomaselli, Imperial College London (presenter)
Armando R. Colina, Banco de Mexico

The Price of Geoeconomic Dependence: Sanction Intensity and Corporate Credit Spreads
Benedikt Kagerer, University of Cambridge

The conference is entirely student-run. The organisers kindly acknowledge financial support from The University of Cambridge's Research-led Events Scheme.

2:30 pm Break

2:35 pm SESSION 4: FROM MICRO TO MACRO (Meade Room)

The Inflation Expectations of the Savers
Gabriele Buontempo, LMU Munich

The Hidden Cost of Misallocation: Low Markups, Low Welfare?
Sandeep Achary, Universitat Pompeu Fabra (presenter)
Nicolas Oviedo, Universitat Pompeu Fabra

4:05 pm Break

6:45 pm Conference Dinner at Magdalene College (by invitation)

Organising Committee

Razan Amine (ra612@cam.ac.uk)
Lennart Niermann (lcn29@cam.ac.uk)

The conference is entirely student-run. The organisers kindly acknowledge financial support from The University of Cambridge's Research-led Events Scheme.